1. Choose the right answer:

a. I need to _______________ her temperature now.
   a. revise      b. check      c. put      d. see

b. Could you please ______________ ? I need to check your pulse.
   a. sit up      b. stand up    c. lift your sleeve    d. walk

c. Do not hesitate to press the ______________ anytime you need to.
   a. call button  b. bell       c. button       d. phone

d. Your ______________ was on September 3\textsuperscript{rd}.
   a. entry       b. admission    c. admission date    d. entrance

e. I would love you to ______________ on the scales, please.
   a. bend down    b. go over     c. stand up      d. lie down

f. I counted your ______________ while your watching the machine.
   a. cuffs b. respiration       c. steps      d. push-ups

2. Answer the following questions using true or false after going through the dialogue between a nurse and a patient who is terminally ill:

Stephen: Hello, Usha. How are you feeling today?

Stephen: Oh, I am sorry to hear that. You don’t think the pain is getting any better with your treatment?

Usha: No. I feel it’s getting worse.

Stephen: Mm. Did you have radiotherapy yesterday?

Usha: Yes, in the morning. It made me feel quite sick. I don’t feel like eating at all.

Stephen: Why don’t you get some medication for the pain and nausea?

Usha: Yes, please. Then I might try to have a rest.

Stephen: Good idea. I’ll bring you the injection right now.

Usha: Thanks.

Stephen: Can I get you a cup of tea, too?

Usha: Thanks, Stephen. I’d like that.

Stephen: Oh, I am sorry to hear that. You don’t think the pain is getting any better with your treatment?

Usha: No. I feel it’s getting worse.

Stephen: Mm. Did you have radiotherapy yesterday?

Usha: Yes, in the morning. It made me feel quite sick. I don’t feel like eating at all.

Stephen: Why don’t you get some medication for the pain and nausea?

Usha: Yes, please. Then I might try to have a rest.

Stephen: Good idea. I’ll bring you the injection right now.

Usha: Thanks.

Stephen: Can I get you a cup of tea, too?

Usha: Thanks, Stephen. I’d like that.

Questions about the dialogue: TRUE or FALSE.

a. Usha doesn’t want to talk about her illness: _______.

b. Usha enjoys her meals: _______.

c. Usha’s pain is getting worse: _______.

 d. Usha is having radiotherapy treatment: _______.
e. Usha felt sick after her radiotherapy treatment: ________.
f. Usha is going to have a rest now: ________.

3. Translate the words into Spanish or Catalan and then write a sentence in English:
   a. Nauseous:
   b. Feel sick:
   c. Illness:
   d. Get better/Get worse:
   e. Radiotherapy:
   f. Hospice:

4. Spot and correct the error in the sentences below: It could be a spelling, grammar or vocabulary mistake. Watch out!!
   a. They wen to the hospice jesterday.
   b. I wasnot seeing those patients between five to seven, I was doin somethin els.
   c. Du yu think the pein is geting any better?
   d. I am feeling a bit down last week.
   e. How were your chemo next week?

5. The final exercise you are going to do in this mini-lesson is to answer the questions related to three youtube videos about “taking care of a terminally ill patient in a hospice”. You will need to paste the link onto the internet to be able to answer them.
1. What is really hospice care?

2. Where is hospice care conducted?

3. Does is provide comfort and support?

4. Do all the patients that hospice care helps have cancer?

5. Is it only for adults?

6. What types of hospice care services are there?

7. When should you begin hospice care?