1. Match the following hospital abbreviations (1-8) to their meanings (a-h):

1. wrist
   - a. wraps around a patient’s arm to check blood pres.
2. scales
   - b. takes a patient’s temperature
3. pulse oximeter
   - c. the region where the foot and the leg meet
4. knee
   - d. part of the body attached to the hand
5. lower back
   - e. records a patient’s blood oxygen saturation
6. blood pressure cuff
   - f. to weigh a patient
7. tympanic thermometer
   - g. joins the thigh with the lower leg
8. ankle
   - h. where the lower spine ends

2. Answer the following questions after going through the dialogue between a nurse and a patient:

Stephen: It’s Mr Connolly? Isn’t it?

Mr Connolly: Yes, I am.

Stephen: My name is Stephen and I will be looking after you today.

Mr Connolly: Oh, great!

Stephen: I just wanted you to know where everything is. Make sure that you are comfortable and relaxed.

Mr Connolly: That’s very kind of you.

Stephen: Ok, here is the nurse call. Just press it if you need anything. The bathroom is on your left. Do you need any help getting to the bathroom?

Mr Connolly: Thank you, right now I don’t need to go to the bathroom.

Stephen: No problem. Is there anything else I can do for you?

Mr Connolly: Er, no. I am fine. Thanks.

Stephen: All right. I’ll be back to ask you some questions after your lunch.

Mr Connolly: See you!
Questions about the dialogue:

a. Does Stephen know Mr Connolly?

b. What does Stephen inform Mr Connolly about?

c. Is Mr Connolly happy about Stephen’s behavior?

d. Does Mr Connolly need any help with anything?

e. What is Mr Connolly going to do after talking to Stephen?

3. Spot and correct the error in the sentences below:

a. She go to the hospital one a week to see his father.

b. I am not seeing that patien yesterday, I seed him two days ago.

c. Are he breatheing ok? I don’t thing you are.

d. The timpanic termometre don’t work properly.

e. His bak is badly hurt, he had a dramatic accident this morning.

f. I cant see those patiens these afternoon, I am too bisy.

4. Can you write a description of the following hospital objects? I will help you providing some vocabulary so that you can describe them properly: ( stretch, protect, identify, check temperature / comfortable, clean, clear, useful / doctors, patients, nurses / frequently, daily, sometimes, usually, often )

A. Hospital stretcher –

b. Arm dressing –

c. ID bracelet –

d. Timpanic thermometer –